

Dr. Myron Weisfeldt Honored with Stanley J. Sarnoff Spirit Award

At the April 29, 2011 Awards Dinner, Dr. Myron ("Mike") L. Weisfeldt was honored as the first recipient of the Stanley J. Sarnoff Spirit Award.

On behalf of the Foundation, Dr. Charles Lowenstein acknowledged Dr. Weisfeldt's three decades of extraordinary service to the Foundation, beginning with his role as the "prototype" inspiration to Dr. Sarnoff to create the Sarnoff Fellowship. He noted that Dr. Weisfeldt has selflessly given countless hours of service and expertise as an active member of the Foundation's Board of Directors. In addition, Dr. Lowenstein recognized and thanked Mike for his most recent contribution as Chair of the Development Committee and his efforts to advance the Foundation's mission through his leadership on the Anniversary Campaign.

Dr. Weisfeldt's efforts have inspired Fellows, colleagues and friends creating the "ripple effect" among the Sarnoff community that will further the vision of Dr. Sarnoff for generations to come.

The Stanley J. Sarnoff Spirit Award was established to recognize the long history of volunteer service by Dr. Myron L. Weisfeldt on the occasion of his retirement from the Sarnoff Board of Directors. The award will be given annually to honor an individual for their commitment and dedication as demonstrated by their contributions of time, energy and expertise in support of the Sarnoff Fellowship Program, the Sarnoff Society of Alumni and/or the advancement of the Sarnoff Cardiovascular Research Foundation's mission.
